MOTHER'S DAY TEA RETURNS TO PAMPLIN HISTORICAL PARK

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 13, 2017

Petersburg, VA, – Abigail Adams, former First Lady of the United States, once said, “Don’t forget the ladies,” and Pamplin Historical Park agrees! On Saturday, May 13, the Park will host a Mother’s Day Tea where ladies and gentlemen in period dress will teach guests what life was like for women in the 19th century, including standards of etiquette, clothing styles and life in antebellum society, while they enjoy gourmet tea and tasty treats.

“Our goal is to have fun as we honor, not only mothers, but all women, while we look back at life in the 1800s,” said Education Assistant, Victoria Webb. The Mother’s Day Tea will only be offered one day, Saturday, May 13, from 2:00 p.m.-3:30 p.m. and space is limited. Due to the popularity of this program, reservations and prepayment are required. The event will be held at The National Museum of the Civil War Soldier located at 6125 Boydton Plank Road, Petersburg, VA 23803.

Tickets are $24 for the General Public and $20 for Pamplin Historical Park Members. Call 804-861-2408 for reservations.

One of “Virginia’s Best Places to Visit” according to the Travel Channel, and designated as a National Historic Landmark, Pamplin Historical Park & The National Museum of the Civil War Soldier is a 424-acre Civil War campus located in Dinwiddie County, Virginia offering a combination of high-tech museums and hands-on experiences. The Park has four world-class museums and four antebellum homes. The Park is also the site of The Breakthrough Battlefield of April 2, 1865 and America’s premiere participatory experience, Civil War Adventure Camp.
