PAMPLIN ANNOUNCES NEW MEMBERSHIP PROGRAM

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 13, 2017

two year pricing starts at $40.00.

Petersburg, Va. – Pamplin Historical Park and The National Museum of the Civil War Soldier has launched a new membership program. This includes twelve levels of membership up from the previous five. Teachers K-12 and students K-12 or college can now receive memberships at a reduced cost along with seniors and active duty military members. Both one and two year memberships are now available with a price reduction for those opting to join for multiple years. One year memberships begin at $25.00 and Each membership level includes free Park admission for one or two years and several additional incentives that increase with the level of membership purchased. All receive the newsletter, a 10% discount in The Civil War Store and an invitation to the annual member's party. The free admission also includes some special events held at the Park throughout the year such as on Memorial Day or Independence Day.

Additional levels include those for couples or family and The Charles Gould Regiment, The Boisseau Brigade, The Hart & Banks Division, The 1865 Society and The Pamplin Corps. These memberships are geared for multiple persons or corporate entities and are named after historical elements of the Park. Benefits increase at each level and can include behind the scenes tours and further discounts on programs like the Civil War Adventure Camp or in The Civil War Store. The highest levels also include complimentary gift memberships.

Those who would like to pay for memberships in person, at The National Museum of the Civil War Soldier, have the option of selecting an item from a variety of five gifts. This incentive is only available in person and benefits the local community and those visiting guests who will frequent the Park.

Anyone interested in more information on memberships and pricing can visit www.pamplinpark.org and click on the join/donate button. The page also has printable forms for joining and online payment options are available.

One of "Virginia's Best Places to Visit" according to the Travel Channel, and designated as a National Historic Landmark, Pamplin Historical Park & The National Museum of the Civil War Soldier is a 424-acre Civil War campus located in Dinwiddie County, Virginia offering a combination of high-tech museums and hands-on experiences. The Park has four world-class museums and four antebellum homes. The Park is also the site of The Breakthrough Battlefield of April 2, 1865 and America's premiere participatory experience, Civil War Adventure Camp.
