AUTHOR DIGS UP HOMEFRONT HISTORY AT PAMPLIN

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 19, 2017

Petersburg, VA. – We sometimes forget that the Civil War played out on the home front as well as on the battlefield. In fact, for Southern civilians, the home front too often became scenes of conflict. Please join us on April 29, 2017 as author Courtney Soling Smith discusses the research that served as the basis for her recently released novel, Lies Based on True Stories. Her talk, “Digging Up History: Uncovering Interesting Facts about Daily Life during the Civil War,” will begin at 1:00 pm and will be followed by a book signing. The program is free with paid admission or membership.

One of “Virginia’s Best Places to Visit” according to the Travel Channel, and designated as a National Historic Landmark, Pamplin Historical Park & The National Museum of the Civil War Soldier is a 424-acre Civil War campus located in Dinwiddie County, Virginia offering a combination of high-tech museums and hands-on experiences. The Park has four world-class museums and four antebellum homes. The Park is also the site of The Breakthrough Battlefield of April 2, 1865 and America’s premiere participatory experience, Civil War Adventure Camp.
