FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 10, 2017

Petersburg, Va. – Pamplin Historical Park and The National Museum of the Civil War Soldier has partnered with the Fort Lee Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation to offer exclusive tickets to the Fort Lee military community. The discounted tickets for adults ($10.50) and children ($7.50) are now available through the Family and MWR Fort Lee Ticket Office. The MWR exclusively services: Fort Lee soldiers, family members, retirees and DOD civilians.

The Fort Lee community population now averages more than 27,000 service members, families, government civilians and contractors. Additionally, 70,000 troops come through Fort Lee's classrooms annually. These groups can now benefit from the Pamplin Historical Park reduced ticket and continue their heritage training or bring family members to experience the Park.

This is an example of Pamplin Historical Park's commitment to thanking our military community members not only for the sacrifices of the past but, also for sacrifices made each day. Eligible Fort Lee Family and MWR individuals and groups can contact the Fort Lee Ticket Office at (804) 765-3789 or email LTS@leemwr.com for more information.
